CARIBBEAN CRUISE DREAM VACATION CONTEST • OFFICIAL RULES

Winners will be awarded one cruise ticket. All cruise cabins are double occupancy.

All active distributors in good standing may participate in the contest. To be eligible for the prize, distributors must remain active and in good standing during the contest period and months preceding the cruise. New distributors must remain active from the time of enrollment until the cruise to be eligible.

Any product returns will result in the corresponding qualifications being forfeited.

Youngevity® reserves the right to act as the final judge as to winner eligibility and prize distribution, as well as to any interpretations of these rules. Contest is void where prohibited. Winners assume the responsibility of reporting any prizes won as income on tax returns; Youngevity® will not pay taxes for the winners and may report any prizes distributed to the IRS.

Youngevity® reserves the right to suspend or terminate this promotion without notice if deemed necessary by Youngevity® Executive Management. This offer cannot be combined with any other offer.

All winners will be subject to verification or auditing of their qualifications.

All decisions made by Youngevity® will be final.

Passport & Visa Requirements

It is suggested that ALL participants have a valid passport to board the ship. If you currently have a passport, make sure it will still be valid in 2009. If you don't have a passport, contact your local post office immediately for instructions on obtaining one. If you are a citizen of any country outside the United States and Canada, please determine what other appropriate legal documents are required, i.e., Visa, Green Card, along with your passport.

Flight Information

When the contest is over, prize winners will be contacted with instructions on how to obtain their flights.

Cancellations & Refunds

After January 31, 2012, no refunds or cancellations will be made. The registered individual will be responsible to pay the entire fee for their stateroom. Note: Cruise prizes are non-transferable and are not redeemable for cash or other prizes.

Questions & Clarification
